

Cookie policy

We are using cookies to provide you the best experience on our Website and ensure site functionality. By continuing to use our site, you acknowledge that you are informed of the use of cookies.

What is a cookie?

A cookie is a small amount of data that a website stores on your computer, tablet or mobile device when you open a website. The site helps you to remember your login and settings (such as the language, font sizes, display settings, etc.) with which you have chosen to view the site, so that they do not need to be redefined every time.

Which cookies we use?

Cookie name	Host	Duration	Description
<code>_ga</code>	Google Inc.	2 years	Cookies used to collect and analyze website traffic and use of the website. These cookies do not identify the user, but they allow, for example, to recognize if the same user re-enters the page at different intervals. Created during the operation of the Google Analytics library. This type of cookie can be turned off and this will not cause any changes in the functionality of the website. Detailed information about Google's privacy policy is available here (https://support.google.com/analytics/answer/6004245).
